Make photo collages just with a few mouse clicks and drag 'n drop! It supports a lot of different collage plugins that are freely available from the Internet. A script that is called with a short cut key and a seed of your choice will then do the rest. Start with the CollagePluginBatch, CollagePluginPaint or CollagePluginWeb. Choose the amount of images you want to use and then add or remove images from your canvas. After the main preview of your images is ready, you can apply a watermark, resize and crop the images and so on. There is also a CreateLandscape function for the CollagePluginBatch and for the CollagePluginWeb if you prefer a landscape.

Just select a photos for the landscape and use the crop tool to get a landscape that fits to the selected images. Once you have added your favorite images, you can use the dither function to get a good result. It will automatically set the dither for you. Just place the cursor on a given pixel and a preview of the result will appear. You can use this function in combination with the crop tool to make your images even more interesting and pleasing to the eye. The CollagePluginWeb is the easiest one to use. It supports drag 'n drop and a preview of the result. When you are done, click "Start" and the result will be added to your image. A quick and easy way to add watermarks, borders and cropping. In addition to the automatic selection of the size, the dither is set automatically too. All you have to do is press the "Start" button and the rest will be done for you.
