Download

Downloading Foreign Movies The act of downloading foreign movies is illegal if you don't reside in the country where the movies was made and you are NOT residing where you are downloading the movie. ISPs and copyright holders can get you removed from online peer-to-peer networks, fined and may suspend your account and block future access to pirated content. By Downloading a foreign movie you may agree to unknown copyright obligations as well as legal charges against you. But Downloading foreign movies is still the best way to watch movies. Downloading foreign movies is simple but if you don't follow the usual steps, you may not be able to access and play the movie. Below is a list of steps for Downloading foreign movies. Pirate! Easy steps to Download foreign movies You are running on Windows? Go to Start (All Programs) and look for BitTorrent. Click on it to open the application. Click on Open. You need to join a Peer to Peer Network as a seed. Click on the + sign as a seed. Connect your Network via "Connect To Other Peer". Click on the the network and go to the "Settings". Click on "Open Filters". Select "Custom Filter" then click on "Add Filter". Add the IP of the address you want to block. Click on "Apply Filter", then "OK". By default, the IP's you are viewing are allowed to share your computer. "No" but clicking on "Open Filters" you are allowing the IP's to join your Computer. Hide IP's "OK" the settings. "OK" to save the network. From the Network List, select your network and open the "Clients" tab. Click on the arrow to open the "Add Downloaded" and "Add" tabs. If the IP you are viewing is in the "Add" tab then you can block it. If they are in the "Downloaded" tab then you can't block it. Avoid Freeware & Shareware Not all Freeware and Shareware is legitimate. They can slow down your system and introduce security risks. Sites like Download Free Software, Free Software, Free Software UndergroundÂ . These sites host pirated