Sir, I am simple laborer. I never thought that I will get so many pails. But still I am doing it. " He looked around and understood that he was in the paddy field. He looked at the house and got frightened. On the door side, there was a little gate. He was surprised and was thinking how to open it. On the other side, the gate was closed with a big lock. He was in the paddy field and didn't have any option other than breaking the lock. "Paddy fields are not in parks. You have come to the paddy field to steal? If you want to steal, go for some other place." Talking to himself, he ran out of the paddy field with his feet, colliding with the fence of the garden. "Damn you! Who are you? Who are you? I am getting angry. I am the gardener. Come, I will try to catch you. He came out of the field and ran towards the backyard. He looked at the garden and the house; both were safe. He ran towards the garbage shed, which was behind the garden. He looked at the garbage shed, "Since your son did not help, you couldn't even think of saving your daughter. Where are you running? I am here. Stop there." Yeddyurappa had entered the garbage shed. He looked at the garbage shed, "Where did you come from?" "In big cities, people throw their garbage on the streets. People there sell the garbage and earn money. I have been in the garden for more than 3 days, but could not find anything. After some time, a person came to our house with vegetables. I told him that I have vegetables; he took them and went. I thought that a person would not sell the vegetables without doing anything. I looked at the garbage. If there are ants, they
